TREE

By: Guillermo Andres De Mendoza Corrales

Theory

- A tree is a hierarchical data structure used to organize and represent data in a parent–child relationship.
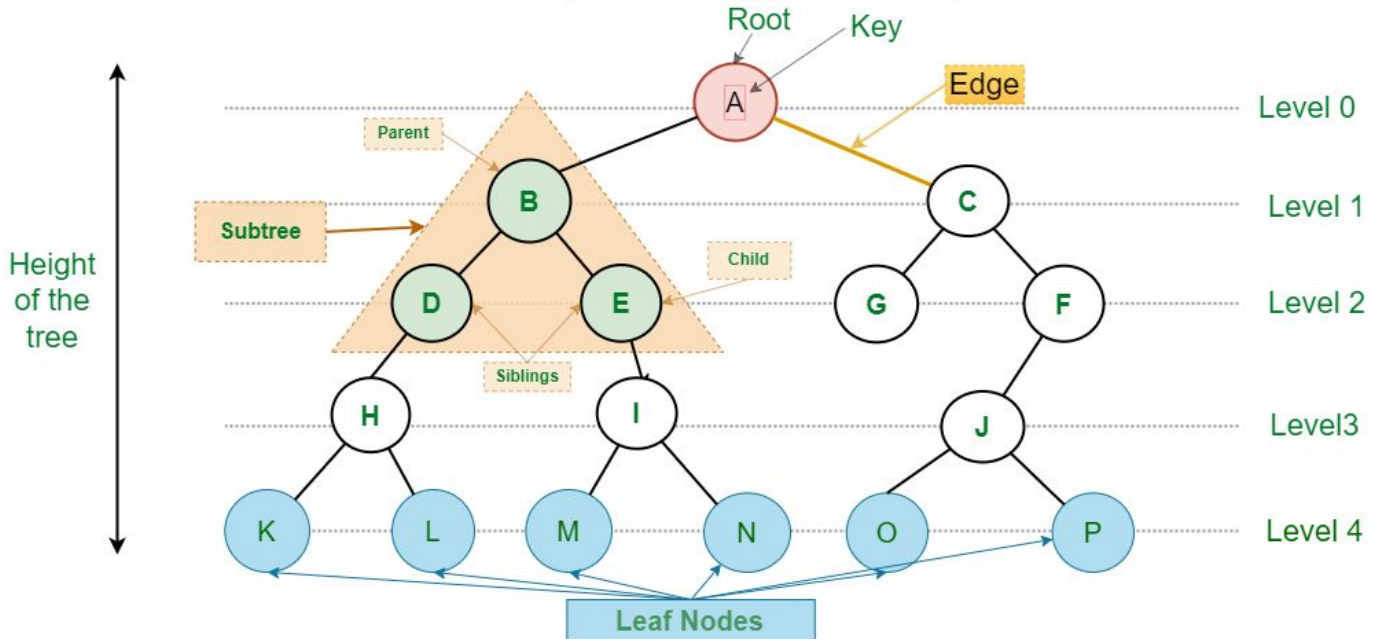
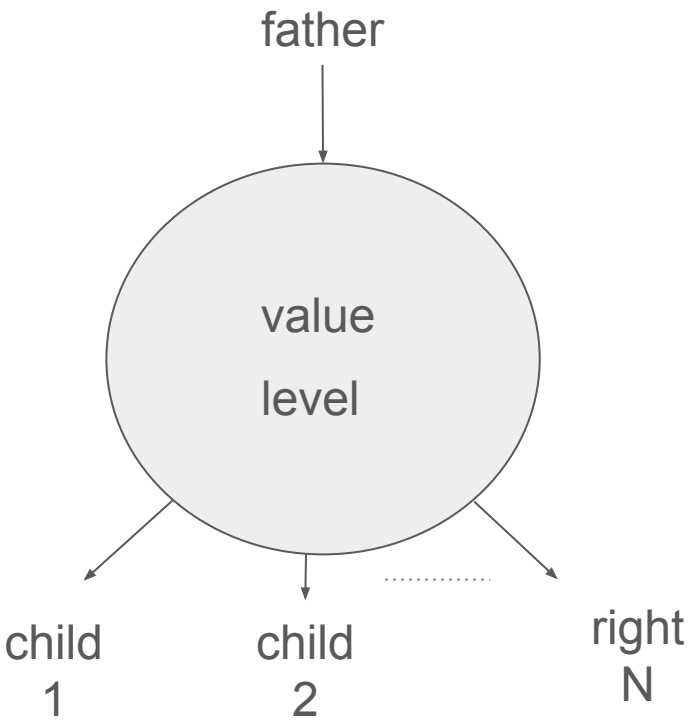
- It consists of nodes, where the topmost node is called the root, and every other node can have one or more child nodes.

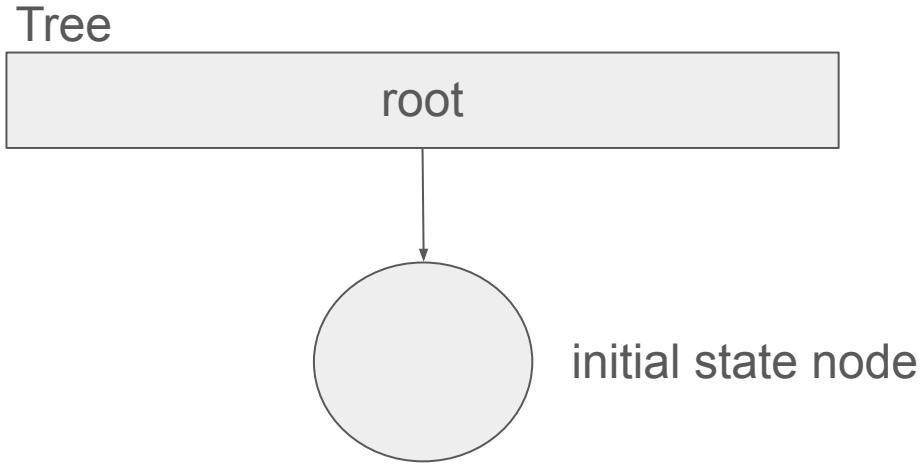
Structure



Root
Key
Edge
A
Level 0
Parent
B
C
Level 1
Subtree
Child
D
E
G
F
Level 2
Height of the tree
Siblings
H
I
J
Level3
K
L
M
N
O
P
Level 4
Leaf Nodes

Node





Tree with nodes